

Thursday 16th April

19.00 – 20.00 Welcome drinks, Town House, Union Street Aberdeen

Friday 17th April

09.00 – 09.30 Registration, Elphinstone Hall

09.30 – 11.00 Panel Session 1, Various Locations – see detailed programme

11.00 – 11.30 Tea and Coffee; Elphinstone Hall

11.30 – 13.00 Panel Session 2, Various Locations – see detailed programme

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch, Elphinstone Hall

SLAS Committee Meeting; Linnlater Rooms

14.00 – 15.30 Panel Session 3, Various Locations – see detailed programme

15.30 – 16.00 Tea and Coffee, Elphinstone Hall

BLAR, 'Meet the Editors' Session, Linkater Rooms

16.00 – 17.30 Panel Session 4, Various Locations – see detailed programme

17.30 – 18.30 Keynote Address, New King's 6

19.30 for 20.00 Drinks Reception followed by Dinner and Ceilidh, Beach Ballroom

Saturday 18th April

09.30 – 11.00 SLAS AGM

11.00 – 11.30 Tea and Coffee, Elphinstone Hall

11.30 – 13.00 Panel Session 5, Various Locations – see detailed programme

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch, Elphinstone Hall

PILAS Lunch, Linklater Rooms

14.00 – 15.30 Panel Session 6, Various Locations – see detailed programme

15.30 – 16.00 Tea and Coffee, Elphinstone Hall

16.00 – 17.30 Panel Session 7, Various Locations – see detailed programme

17.30 Conference Close

Panel Sessions One – Friday 09.30 – 11.00

ROOM: NEW KING’S FOURTEEN

TITLE: States and Social Change in Latin America Single Panel

CONVENOR: Maura Duffy – University of Manchester

	Title and Author
	In and Against the State? Social Policy and Grassroots Organisation in Venezuela Maura Duffy - University of Manchester
	The category desplazado and creation of social boundaries Mateja Celestina – Coventry University
	‘Orteguismo’ and state-society relations in Nicaragua Sarah Hunt – University of Manchester
	State Response to Urban Violence in El Salvador Kirsten Howarth – Dalhousie University

ROOM: KING’S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR SEVEN

TITLE: Politico-Territorial Autonomy and Resource Governance Single Panel

CONVENORS: Anna Laing and Francesca Minelli – University of Glasgow

	Title and Author
	Conflicts between biodiversity protection and sand mining: A case study in the coastal sand dunes of El Socorro, Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico. Natalia Rodriguez-Revelo - Universidad Autonoma de Baja Autonomy and Collaboration in Communitarian Water and Sewage Provision: The relationship between municipalities and water cooperatives in the Cochabamba Conurbation. Francesca Minelli - University of Glasgow
	The Diversification of the Matriz Extractivista and Social Conflict in Uruguay. The Case of Aratirí (Cerro Chato) Stefan Peters - Kassel University

ROOM: KING’S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR SEVEN

TITLE: 'Bring-a-baby' panel: Autonomies and Gender in Latin America Single Panel

CONVENOR: Maria Soledad Montañes – University of Stirling

	Title and Author
	Un ser capaz de empuñar la vida? Autonomy and Women during the 1910 Centenary in Argentina Iona Macintyre - University of Edinburgh
	Militancy and mothering: The ultimate work-life balance? Rachael Nazarko - King's College
	Mother Nature: Autonomy and Motherhood in Alicia Scherson’s ‘Turistas’ Maria Soledad Montañes – University of Stirling

ROOM:	NEW KING'S TEN
TITLE:	Autonomous urban planners? The politics of space in developing sustainable urban futures	Single Panel Only
CONVENOR:	Christien Klaufus - CEDLA
	Title and Author
	Planning sustainable urban deathscapes Christien Klaufus – CEDLA
	Bottom-up planning in the current debate Roberto Rocco - Delft University of Technology
	Perceptions of planners on an electric escalator Letty Reimerink - Independent researcher
	The Post-"Best Practice" City: Politics, Planning and Change in Bogotá, Colombia Erich Hellmer - University of Glasgow
	Dwelling space and the challenge of independización in multi-family housing arrangements in Southern Lima Michaela Hordijk and Viviana d'Auria – University of Amsterdam and KU Leuven

Panel Sessions Two – Friday 11.30 – 13.00

ROOM:	NEW KING'S FOURTEEN
TITLE:	The Cuban Revolution; the Embodiement of Autonomy	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Mervyn Bain – University of Aberdeen
	Title and Author
	Cuban Medical Cooperation in Brazil John Kirk – Dalhousie University
	Cuban-Russian Relations in 2015; asymmetric power in harmony? Mervyn Bain – University of Aberdeen
	LGBT and Well-Being: The Normalization of Sexual Diversity in Contemporary Cuba Through a Health-based Approach Emily Kirk – University of Nottingham
	Why does Cuba care so much about Ebola and other global health calamities: Understanding the solidarity approach to Cuban medical outreach. Robert Huish – Dalhousie University
ROOM:	NEW KING'S ONE
TITLE:	Autonomy and the Good Life (Vivir Beien / Buen Vivir) in Latin America	Single Panel
CONVENORS:	Jonathan Alderman and Rosalyn Bold - University of St Andrews and University of Manchester
DISCUSSANT:	Maggie Bolton, University of Aberdeen
	Title and Author
	Implementing the ideals of the Vivir Bien: A Callawaya tourism project Rosalyn Bold –University of Manchester
	Indigenous Autonomy and Vivir Bien: Living Well through the ayllu Jonathan Alderman – University of St Andrews
	Trabajo y Explotación Laboral Infantil en Poblaciones Indígenas de Bolivia Ruben Dario Chaymbi Mayta - Fundacion Desarrollo y Autogestion, Bolivia
ROOM:	NEW KING'S SIX
TITLE:	Spectres of Nationalism in the Twenty-First Century? Cultural Autonomy in Venezuela	Single Panel
CONVENORS:	Lisa Blackmore, Rebecca Jarman and Penélope Plaza - Universität Zürich, University of Cambridge and City University London
	Title and Author
	The spatialization of the power of oil: PDVSA as place entrepreneur in the regeneration of Sabana Grande Boulevard Penelope Plaza – City University
	Phantom pavilions: El Helicoide and La Torre de David as contested microcosms of the nation-state Lisa Blackmore - Universität Zürich
	Defining the limits of the nation: Indigenous organisations and the Bolivarian revolution Natalia Garcia Bonet – University of Kent
	Political Landslides in Venezuela? Ideology, Childhood and Natural Disaster in Una tarde con campanas (2004) and El chico que miente (2011) Rebecca Jarman – University of Cambridge
	When the Boat Comes In: Myth, Reification, and the Changing Face of Simón Bolívar in Venezuelan Politics and Culture Nicholas Roberts - Durham University

ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Solidarity campaigns and Latin America	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Grace Livingstone - University of Cambridge
	Title and Author
	Why did the Chile Solidarity Campaign have more success than the Argentine Solidarity Movement in Britain? Grace Livingstone – University of Cambridge
	The Dutch solidarity movement in the path of Chile´s redemocratization Mariana Perry - Leiden University
	Spatiality, Contentious Politics and Power - Lessons from a Mexican Peace Movement. Sebastian Scholl – Bamberg University
ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	Ideas, Institutions and Elites: The Intellectual Origins of Capitalism in Latin America	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	David Pretel - Pompeu Fabra University
	Title and Author
	Cohesion, visibility and politics: The symbiotic relationship between neoliberalism and business classes in Argentina and Chile Tomás Undurraga – University of Cambridge
	José Alfredo Martínez de Hoz in the Longue Durée: The Making of an Argentine Neoliberal Joseph A. Francis – Independent Scholar
	Rural Capitalism in Twentieth-Century Latin America: Ruling-elite preferences and economic policy in Colombia Carlos Andrés Brando – Pompeu Fabra University
	Technological Modernity and the Cuban Colonial Elite in the 19 th Century David Pretel - Pompeu Fabra University
ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	Intersections: Autonomy, Creativity, the Political, and the Poetics of Resistance	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	David M Wood - Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
	Title and Author
	The Poetics of Resistance and Concepts of Autonomy Cornelia Gräbner - Lancaster University
	Of Poets and Pirates: Martín Adán's La casa de carton (1928) as a Model for Autonomy in a Post-Modern Age Maria Spitz - South Dakota State University
	Navigating Dependence on National Identity in the Work of Flavia Company Natasha Tanna - University of Cambridge

ROOM:	NEW KING'S TEN
TITLE:	Autonomy of the people: Discourse, hegemony and democracy in Latin American contemporary political processes	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Juan Pablo Sarmiento Barletti and Emilia Ferraro - Newcastle University and University of St. Andrews
	Title and Author
	Post-neoliberal protest movement in Argentina and Brazil: Political discourse between new demands and old social imaginaries Juan Pablo Ferrero – University of Bath
	The Case of the Missing Vanguard Clifton Ross - PM Press
	Representations of the autonomous subaltern in the Zapatista discourse: Issues of Democracy and Identity Isabelle Gribomont - University of St Andrews
	Paradoxical Responses to Corruption: The Role of Public Participation in Enacting Brazil's Anti-Corruption Laws Andreia Carmo - University of Oxford
ROOM:	THE LINKLATER ROOMS
TITLE:	Political Mobilisation and Race in Latin America - from Independence to Neo Liberalism	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Elizabeth Cooper, British Library
CHAIR:	Teresa Meade, Union College
	Title and Author
	Interpreting the other America: José Martí's racial diagnosis of the United States, 1882-1890 Oleski Miranda Navarro - University of Edinburgh
	Remapping América: Maps, Map-making and the Invention of Jesuit New World Imaginaries, 1767-1810 Luis Ramos - New York University
	From quilombo to favela and back: Rio's Urban Quilombo Sacopã and the Limits of Multiculturalism Desiree Poets - Aberystwyth University
	Constructing A National Identity: Veiled Whiteness & The Racialization of Citizenship in 19th Century Honduras Jose Lara - Grand Valley State University

Panel Sessions Three – Friday 14.00 – 15.30

ROOM:	NEW KING'S FOURTEEN
TITLE:	Latin American Football Cultures in Historical Perspectives	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Matthew Brown, Brenda Elsey and David Wood - University of Bristol, Hofstra University and University of Sheffield
	Title and Author
	The Beautiful Game? Women and Football in South America David Wood - The University of Sheffield
	The Origins of Football in Ecuador Matthew Brown - University of Bristol
	Football, urban expansion and lifestyle in Sao Paulo, 1880-1920 Gloria Lanci - University of Bristol
ROOM:	NEW KING'S ONE
TITLE:	Autonomies as radical decentralisation? Lessons from Bolivia	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Phillip Horn - University of Manchester
	Title and Author
	'I Stole Children for the Community': The role of obras in local political processes in the Bolivian Altiplano Rachel Godfrey Wood - Institute of Development Studies
	Indigenous autonomy in the city? Lessons from La Paz's Southern Periphery Philipp Horn - University of Manchester
	Indigenous autonomies (AIOC) in Bolivia: Developments and Shortcomings (2009-2014) Alexandra Tomaselli - European Academy
ROOM:	NEW KING'S SIX
TITLE:	Making Autonomy: Design, Material and Visual culture in Latin America	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Patricia Lara-Betancourt and Livia Rezende - Royal College of Art/ Kingston University and Royal College of Art
	Title and Author
	Vernacular Design: A possibility for autonomy? Fernanda Cardoso - Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro
	Doing, Making and Performing 'Chicha': 'Grafica Popular' and Vernacular Culture in Lima, Peru. Caroline Hodges - Bournemouth University
	Making the process visible, the turn in design education in Uruguay María José Lopez Belatti - Escuela Universitaria Centro de Diseño
	Paternalism and response. ALADI (Latin American Association of Industrial Design) as the image of an autonomous Latin America Juan Buitrago - Universidade de São Paulo

ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Solidarity campaigns and Latin America	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Grace Livingstone – University of Cambridge
	Title and Author
	The role of solidarity movements in promoting health and well-being among exiles: The case of Chileans in the UK Jasmine Gideon – Birbeck London
	Chile: the seed that triggered widespread interest in Latin America. Mike Gatehouse – Latin America Bureau
	Transnational Solidarity in Opposition to the Pinochet Regime: Labour Internationalism in Liverpool and Beyond Marieke Riethof - University of Liverpool
ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Between the local and the global: Transnational experiences of Latin American Migrants	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Jenny Rodriguez and Angelo Martins Jr –Newcastle University and Goldsmiths University, London
	Title and Author
	Beyond the state control, the manifold forms of the control regime: Undocumented migration along the transnational clandestine migratory corridor Ecuador-Mexico-U.S. Soledad Alvarez Velasco - King's College London
	Translocal Belongings: Lived experiences and re-making identity of Colombian and Palestinian refugees in Latin America. Marcia A. Vera Espinoza - University of Sheffield
	Bolivian migrants in Chile: Spaces and places of (non)citizenship Megan Ryburn - Queen Mary, University of London
ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	Intersections: Autonomy, Creativity, the Political, and the Poetics of Resistance	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	David M Wood - Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
	Title and Author
	'Mi ética es la estética': Biofilo Panclasta and 'anarchist' writing Joey Whitfield- University of Leeds
	Autonomy, the state, appropriation and 'committed' audiovisual praxis David M Wood - Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
	The cultural politics of artist-activist collectives in Buenos Aires, Argentina Elke Linders - Utrecht University
	Representaciones de la violencia política en Canto a su amor desaparecido de Zurita María José Barros, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile
ROOM:	NEW KING'S TEN
TITLE:	Autonomy of the people: Discourse, hegemony and democracy in Latin American contemporary political processes	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Juan Pablo Ferrero - University of Bath
	Title and Author
	Redefining autonomy in times of the Ayotzinapa drama: The role of community police forces in Guerrero, Mexico Merel de Buck - University of Utrecht Hegemony vs Autonomy: What does South America tell us? Samuele Mazzolini - University of Essex

Problems and Contradictions of Participatory Democracy: Lessons from Latin America Claudio Balderacchi

Panel Sessions Four – Friday 16.00 – 17.30

ROOM:	NEW KING'S FOURTEEN
TITLE:	Latin American Football Cultures in Historical Perspectives	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Matthew Brown, Brenda Elsey and David Wood - University of Bristol, Hofstra University and University of Sheffield
	Title and Author
	Amazonia: Women and Football in Chile Brenda Elsey - Hofstra University
	Football Supporters' Clubs in Latin America: Contemporary looks Bernardo Buarque - Fundação Getúlio Vargas
	'We don't know how to lose': Gender, Race, and Region in Brazilian World Cup and Miss Universe Press Coverage (1954-1962) Courtney J. Campbell - Institute of Historical Research, School of Advanced Study, University of London
ROOM:	NEW KING'S ONE
TITLE:	Autonomies as radical decentralisation? Lessons from Bolivia	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Phillip Horn - University of Manchester
	Title and Author
	Autonomy in Opposition: Indigeneity, extraction and struggle Jessica Hope - University of Manchester
	Constructing Autonomies in the Bolivian Lowlands: From Self-determination to What? Katinka Weber - University of Liverpool
	'We are already autonomous, but we claim for more autonomy': The case of Raqaypampa Mauricio Hashizume - Centre for Social Studies / University of Coimbra
ROOM:	NEW KING'S SIX
TITLE:	Making Autonomy: Design, Material and Visual culture in Latin America	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Patricia Lara-Betancourt and Livia Rezende - Royal College of Art/ Kingston University and Royal College of Art
	Title and Author
	Projecting the nation? Public Space Design in Sao Paulo and London during the mid-20th Century Susannah Hagan - Royal College of Art
	A Brazilian Design out of a Foreign Vision: Educational Aims of Museums, Industrial and Graphic Design between Popular and Mass Culture Aline Coelho Sanches Corato - Universidade de São Paulo
	Otherness became own. The origins of the modern design in Mexico Oscar Salinas Flores - Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México

ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Between the local and the global: Transnational experiences of Latin American Migrants	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Jenny Rodriguez and Angelo Martins Jr - Newcastle University and Goldsmiths University, London
	Title and Author
	Making a home: Materialising belongings, identities and memories in the experiences of exile and return Macarena Bonhomme – Goldsmiths, University of London
	A música, os músicos e a comunidade brasileira em Lisboa-Portugal Amanda Fernandes Guerreiro - Instituto de Ciências Sociais da Universidade de Lisboa
	Brazilians in the UK: Recent Trends of a Migration Stream Julio Davies - King's College London
	Navigating dynamics of displacement, exclusion and containment: Brazilian women's experiences of transnational mobility Angelo Martins Jr – Goldsmiths College
ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	Race, Ethnicity, Class and Gender: Intersections and Complexities of Categories of Discrimination and Inequality	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Desiree Poets - Aberystwyth University
	Title and Author
	Beauty pageants at the intersection of indigeneity, gender and class in Quetzaltenango, Guatemala Elisabet Rasch - Wageningen University
	Ageism in the context of oppression: Cultural assumptions, stereotypes and the marginalization of elders in today's rapidly ageing world Gisela Castro - ESPM
	Analyzing thinking as the origin of social inequality: Children, social class, schooling, and families in Chile. Pablo Torres - University of Cambridge
ROOM:	NEW KING'S TEN
TITLE:	Autonomy, Movement, and the Constraints of Identity: Defining Nation, Self and Other in Latin America	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Marcia Stephenson - Purdue University
	Title and Author
	Intercultural Go-Betweens in the 19th-Century Bolivian Andes: A Case History of Autonomy and Interdependence Marcia Stephenson - Purdue University
	Bertha Lutz' quest for authority and autonomy in the early 20th-century Brazilian scientific community Michelle Medeiros - Marquette University
	Locating Home and Away: Traversing the Risks and Constraints of Nature, Nation, and Adventure at the Foot of the Argentine Andes Joy Logan - University of Hawai
	The Institute of Volunteers. An autonomous Cuban movement within the Spanish Empire? Fernando J. Padilla Angulo - University of Bristol

ROOM:	THE LINKLATER ROOMS
TITLE:	Tensions and conflicts derived from by the exercise of indigenous peoples' right to autonomy: Experiences from the Andean region	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Amelia Alva-Arevalo - Ghent University
	Title and Author
	Andoas: an open wound in the Peruvian Amazon Amelia Alva-Arevalo - Ghent University
	The introduction of Direct Democracy in Latin America: Brazil, Venezuela and Bolivia, three cases in three different decades. Pedro Capra - Centre for Research on Direct Democracy (c2d) University of Zurich
	Afro - Brazilian heritage in the first decades of no more Brazilian slave system Agata Bloch - Polish Academy of Sciences

Panel Sessions Five – Saturday 11.30 – 13.00

ROOM: NEW KING’S FOURTEEN

TITLE: Indigenous Autonomies and Adaptation in the Americas Single Panel

CONVENOR: Caroline Williams – University of Bristol

	Title and Author
	'Jiguaní inmortal': Autonomy, Sovereignty, and Indigeneity in an 'Indian Town' in Cuba, c. 1700-1800 Jason Yaremko - University of Winnipeg
	Iyambae: Alienation, autonomy and the ethos of being 'without an owner' among the Chiriguano-Guarani Agustin Diz - London School of Economics
	Aymara Struggles for Schooling and Autonomy in Bolivia, 1920s-1940s. Brooke Larson - Stony Brook University
	The Power of the Plume: Guarani Autonomy and Literacy during the Crises of the Mid-Eighteenth Century, Paraguay Barbara Ganson - Florida Atlantic University

ROOM: NEW KING’S ONE

TITLE: Latin America without borders: Regional cooperation in comparative perspective Double Panel

CONVENOR: Hilary Francis - Institute of Latin American Studies

	Title and Author
*	The pulp mill conflict and its implications for regional cooperation in the Southern Cone Karen Siegel - University of Glasgow
*	'Lifting the veil of ignorance'? Cuban teachers in revolutionary Nicaragua Hilary Francis - Institute of Latin American Studies
*	Building the Patria Grande: Breaking Down the Borders to Social Guarantees under the "Right to Migration" Paradigm Simca Theresa Simpson - London School of Economics and Political Science
*	Knocking down the borders at the local level Mariano Alvarez - Leiden University

ROOM: NEW KING’S SIX

TITLE: 'Buen vivir' as policy and practice in Latin America Double Panel

CONVENOR: Juan Pablo Sarmiento Barletti - Durham University

	Title and Author
	Bienestar Social Rural: Improving Rural Physical and Social Well-Being in 1950s Mexico Stephanie Opperman - Georgia College
	Progreso, Inclusion Social, Extraction, and Well-being in Peru: A Comparative Approach to Everyday Indigenous Experience Lexy Seedhouse and Juan Pablo Sarmiento Barletti - Newcastle University and Durham University
	Buen Vivir and the appropriation of political rhetoric: The multiple uses of Buen Vivir in strategic differentiations Daniela Bressa Florentin - University of Bath

ROOM: KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Culture, Politics and Identity Single Panel
CONVENOR: Andor Skotnes – The Sage Colleges
	Title and Author
	Increase and autonomy of the participation of working classes in art exhibitions in Brazil Lígia Dabul - Universidade Federal Fluminense
	Carmen Berenguer's Bobby Sands desfallece en el muro (1983): Writing oppression Bárbara Fernández - University of Edinburgh
	Andrés Bello, Francisco Bilbao and the Place of Reason in Latin America Monica González - Universidad de Talca
	Diagnoses on the nation: The Brazilian Cultural History in the 1930's André Joanilho – UEL
ROOM: KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	The Political Ecology of Extraction: Negotiating livelihoods and landscapes across Latin America (Territory, Livelihood and Conflict) Double Panel
CONVENOR: Jessica Hope – Manchester University
	Title and Author
	Mapping the Multivocality of the Opposition to Metallic Mining in El Salvador Ainhoa Montoya - Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London
	Agroindustry and the perspectives for peasant autonomy on Peru's coast Andrew Jobling - Sheffield Hallam University
	Is it all about the water? Exploring conflicts between indigenous communities and the mining industry in the Atacama Desert Katy Jenkins and Hugo Romero Toledo - Northumbria University and Centro de Estudios de Conflicto y Cohesión Social Ecuador and the architecture and culture of Extractivism Alejandra Espinosa - University of Amsterdam

ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	Neoliberal Governance and Responses	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Mervyn Bain – University of Aberdeen
	Title and Author
	Regionalism and Extractivism: Challenging Neoliberalism in Latin America Kristin Ciupa - Queen Mary University of London
	The sweatshops and labour conditions of Latin American immigrants in São Paulo's clothing production chain Joana Contino - Pontifícia Universidade Católica
	Management strategies in Argentine printing workers' co-operatives Paola Raffaelli - University of Roehampton
	The Brazilian landless movement assistance in the return of Brazilian emigrants from Paraguay Marcos Estrada - University of Warwick
ROOM:	NEW KING'S TEN
TITLE:	Why the PRI Returned to Power in Mexico?	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Peter Watt – Sheffield University
	Title and Author
	Media reform in Mexico. Continuity or change? Jose Antonio Brambila - University of Sheffield
	Peña Nieto and the return of authoritarian politics John Ackerman - Sciences Po
	"Explaining the failure of the Anticorruption Reform in Mexico" Irma Eréndira Sandoval Ballesteros - National Autonomous University of Mexico

Panel Sessions Six – Saturday 14.00 – 15.30

ROOM:	NEW KING’S FOURTEEN
TITLE:	Indigenous cultures in Latin America: Ethnohistorical and linguistic approaches	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Sabine Dedenbach-Salazar and Katja Hannss - Stirling University and University of Cologne
	Title and Author
	Why state the obvious? Tense-aspect marking and its connection to information structure in Garifuna Steffen Haurholm-Larsen - Bern University
	Word formation in Kallawayá: Compounding and incorporation Katja Hannss - Universitaet Koeln
	Spanish elements in Yurakaré against the background of language contact theory Rik van Gijn - University of Cologne
ROOM:	NEW KING’S ONE
TITLE:	Latin America without borders: Regional cooperation in comparative perspective	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Hilary Francis - Institute of Latin American Studies
	Title and Author
*	The Mystery of Peru's 'Casas ALBA': Venezuelan 'Social Power' Projection or Bottom-Up Social Regionalisation? Asa Cusack - Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London
*	Comparative analysis of limits and possibilities under ALBA and UNASUR Emine Tahsin - Istanbul university
*	ALBA: Towards Regional Autonomy through Integration Kristin Ciupa - Queen Mary University of London
ROOM:	NEW KING’S SIX
TITLE:	Buen vivir’ as policy and practice in Latin America	Double Panel
CONVENORS:	Juan Pablo Sarmiento Barletti and Emilia Ferraro - Newcastle University and University of St. Andrews
	Title and Author
	Buen vivir y saberes ancestrales Emilia Ferraro - University of St. Andrews
	Lekil Kuxlejal (Buen Vivir) as Cultural Capital in Chiapas, Mexico Susanna Rostas - Cambridge University
	El buen vivir y el proyecto político de la CONAIE Leon Zamosc - University of California, San Diego

* Indicates paper that has changed order since the abstract booklet has been published.

ROOM: KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	The Latin American involvement in South-South development cooperation	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Danilo Marcondes – University of Cambridge
	Title and Author
	The role of a donor in an emerging power's foreign policy: Brazilian solidarity diplomacy Monika Sawicka - Jagiellonian University
	El papel de México en el sistema de cooperación internacional. Una perspectiva desde sus acciones de Cooperación Sur-Sur en América Latina. Analilia Huitron - Complutense University of Madrid (UCM)
	Brazil's South South Cooperation with Africa; a win win Relationship ? The case of biofuel production in Mozambique Gabrielle W.Cusson - Université de Liège
ROOM: KING'S COLLEGE GROUND FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	The Political Ecology of Extraction: Negotiating livelihoods and landscapes across Latin America (Environmental Policy versus Extraction)	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Jessica Hope - University of Manchester
	Title and Author
	Extraction, Conservation & Indigeneity: The case of the Isiboro Secure Indigenous Territory and National Park (TIPNIS), Bolivia Jessica Hope - University of Manchester
	Environmental perspectives on a scenario of open pit mining in a Natural Protected Area. The case of El Arco, Baja California. Naum Lugo - Universidad Autónoma de Baja California
	Agribusiness and forest conservation in Brazil: An analysis of recent institutional changes Flavia Donadelli - London School of Economics and Political Science
	Transnational mining projects in Wirikuta Sacred Natural site: Mobilizing global heritage in search for conservation Oscar Felipe Reyna Jimenez - Wageningen University
ROOM: KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Cultural politics in Latin America and critical theory today: Historical displacements, new approaches	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Tomas Peters - Birkbeck, University of London
	Title and Author
	Reflections on discourses of Latin American culture and hybridization Ignacio Rivera - Goldsmiths, University of London
	Leopoldo Zea and the Latin-American Thinking Christine Esterbauer - University of Vienna
	Lugar de emergencia y trayectoria del pensamiento Cultura para el Desarrollo en América Latina (1970-2010). María Paulina Soto Labbé - Instituto de Estudios Avanzados Universidad de Santiago de Chile

ROOM:	NEW KING'S TEN
TITLE:	Philosophy and Political Engagement in Latin America	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Trevor Stack – University of Aberdeen
	Title and Author
	Camilo Torres - Che Guevara of the Catholics? Eitan Ginzberg - Kibbutzim College of Education
	Zapata reloaded: a Žižekian approach to contemporary Mexico Ramon I. Centeno - University of Sheffield
	Transnational Associational Life and Political Mobilization of Latin Americans in Southern Europe: What Role for Sending State Policies? Ana Margheritis - University of Southampton

Panel Sessions Seven – Saturday 16.00 – 17.30

ROOM:	NEW KING'S FOURTEEN
TITLE:	Indigenous cultures in Latin America: ethnohistorical and linguistic approaches	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Sabine Dedenbach-Salazar - Stirling University
	Title and Author
	Colonial Andean confessionaries as linguistic and ethnohistorical sources Sabine Dedenbach-Salazar - Stirling University
	From sesmeiro Luiz de Miranda to descendant of « the Portugueses »or how to (re)constitute a sociology of the historical occupation of the lower-Amazon Ricardo Theophilo Folhes - Universidade Federal do Para
	Ethnohistory's History Mark Thurner - University of London
ROOM:	NEW KING'S ONE
TITLE:	Media pluralism, autonomy and journalistic practices: rethinking the media role in Latin America	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Carla Moscoso – University of Cambridge
	Title and Author
	Subnational Media Systems in New Democracies. The Case of Local Media Systems in Mexican Provinces Jose Antonio Brambila - The University of Sheffield
	Legitimizing Legalization or Restricting Reform? The Media's Role in Uruguay's Drug Policy Reform Process Jonas von Hoffmann - University of Oxford
	Real time news and the financialization of economic reporting in Brazil: an ethnography of Valor Economico's newsroom Tomas Undurraga - University of Cambridge
	Media concentration and political democratisation: Shaping human rights debate in Chile and Argentina post dictatorship Carla Moscoso - University of Cambridge
ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR SEVEN
TITLE:	Cultural politics in Latin America and critical theory today: historical displacements, new approaches	Double Panel
CONVENOR:	Felipe Lago – Goldsmiths College, London
	Title and Author
	Cultural Policy Guidelines in Peru: The end of one hundred years of solitude of cultural politics? Adriana Arista-Zerga - University of Nottingham
	Cultural policies in a political conflict context: the case of Mapuche Lavkenche communities, Arauco Province, Chile. Nikolas Stüdemann - Wageningen University
	Cultural politics and cultural criticism in Chile post-Dictatorship Tomas Peters - Birkbeck, University of London

ROOM:	KING'S COLLEGE FIRST FLOOR EIGHT
TITLE:	Resources, Rights and Political Ecology in Latin America	Single Panel
CONVENOR:	Maggie Bolton – University of Aberdeen
	Title and Author
	Sugarcane Ethanol: The Hen of the Golden Eggs? Agribusiness and the State in Brazil Leandro Vergara-Camus - SOAS, University of London
	Livelihoods and landscape in Tejo River basin, Brazil: global economies, national policies and local dwelling Roberto Rezende - University of Campinas
	"¿Tendrá término un día tu carrera / Tumultuosa y fiera?": The Rise and Fall of Los Saltos del Guairá Richard Niland - University of Strathclyde	